

The reason my name is on the no-call list is because I don't wish to put up with these unwanted calls from anyone. Not the banks, credit card companies or any other company. If they wish to get in touch with me or my family members, they can do so by using certified mail.